

Figure: 40 TAC §746.1017

Education	Experience
(1) A bachelor's degree with 12 college credit hours in child development and three college credit hours in management,	and at least one year of experience in a licensed child-care center or a licensed or registered child-care home;
(2) An associate's of applied science degree in child development or a closely related field with six college credit hours in child development and three college credit hours in management. A "closely related field" is any educational instruction pertaining to the growth, development, physical or mental care, or education of children ages birth through 13 years,	and at least one year of experience in a licensed child-care center or a licensed or registered child-care home;
(3) Sixty college credit hours with six college credit hours in child development and three college credit hours in management,	and at least one year of experience in a licensed child-care center or a licensed or registered child-care home;
(4) A Child Development Associate credential or Certified Child-Care Professional credential with three college credit hours in management,	and at least one year of experience in a licensed child-care center or a licensed or registered child-care home;
(5) A child-care administrator's certificate from a community college with at least 15 college credit hours in child development and three college credit hours in management,	and at least two years of experience in a licensed child-care center or a licensed or registered child-care home;
(6) A day-care administrator's credential issued by a professional organization or an educational institution and approved by Licensing based on criteria specified in Subchapter P of Chapter 745 of this title (relating to Day-Care Administrator's Credential Program),	and at least two years of experience in a licensed child-care center or licensed or registered child-care home; or
(7) Seventy-two clock hours of training in child development and 30 clock hours in management,	and at least three years of experience in a licensed child-care center or a licensed or registered child-care home.